Updated IRL Consultation Request Form

September 4, 2019

The Versiti Indiana Blood Center, Immunohematology Reference Lab Consultation Request form has been updated. The improved form was implemented on September 03, 2019, as part of our laboratory integration project.

Please discontinue use of form IBC.IRL.FM-0027: 2.0, effective Jan 1, 2019 and replace with IBC.IRL.FM-0027: 3.0, effective Sep 3, 2019. We understand that transitioning to new forms is a process. We will continue to accept work ups requests submitted on previous version of the requisition form until Dec 31, 2019. After, Jan 1, 2020 we will require that the new version be used for all sample submissions.

Please find the updated form attached. Additional copies can be downloaded from our website or requested by phone. Also, a customized, electronic and fillable version of this form was supplied to your laboratory representatives by e-mail.

Summary of changes to the form:

- Updated definitions to the requested priority levels
- Additional test menu options
- Updated design and format
- Addition of questions related to transfusion and serology history

The fillable version of the form can be found on our website:
